THE SCHOOL SONG

I-nga, a ra ta whi to
From old well marked pathways.
The Maori hunters passed along
In Moa hunting days.
From storm and night
Their resting place,
In caves, from here, not far.
And their fear and hope
They did Symbolise,
In the power of Tan-i-wha.

He -, ro-he-ho-u
Towards the new land marks
For we must follow their ways
Nor fear unknown or dark.
So to all of us and all the world,
In Maori tongue we say
Go and take the path try to make your mark,
On each and every day.

GOD DEFEND NEW ZEALAND

God of nations, at Thy feet
In the bonds of love we meet;
Hear our voices we entreat:
God defend our Free-land.
Guard Pacific's Triple Star
From the shafts of strife and war;
Make her praises heard afar:
God defend New Zealand.
